

Let's think about caring for family & society!!

Sweden is described as a country with advanced public welfare, an aging society but without declining birthrates. Meanwhile, Japan is rapidly aging society, at a standstill in many different fields including social security.

Prof. Els-Marie Anbäcken, a Swede born in Japan, will lecture on "Family, Care and Society in Japan and Sweden, from the Swedish perspective." We are looking forward to having many people attend.

Lecturer	Prof. Els-Marie Anbäcken School of Human Welfare Studies, Kwansai Gakuin University ※The lecture will be given in Japanese.
